EN 050: Introduction to College Reading and English I

Syllabus

Lecture Hours/Credits: 3/6

Catalog Description

Prerequisites: Placement through Accuplacer, Decision Zone, and/or Multiple Measures
Introduction to College Reading and English I is an intensive developmental course designed to provide students with the foundations needed for academic reading and writing. In this integrated reading and writing course, students develop a range of strategies for reading different kinds of texts and will practice the stages of the writing process with special focus given to sentence and paragraph organization and structure. This six credit class meets for seven hours each week: five hours in a traditional classroom and two in the Developmental Education Lab (A24).

Textbook and Course Materials

It is the responsibility of the student to confirm with the bookstore and/or their instructor the textbook, handbook, and any other materials required for their specific course and section.

Evaluation Assessment

Grading Distribution

Grading to be determined by individual instructors.

Individual instructors may include the following assessment(s):

- Read lengthy passages and write a one paragraph summary.
- Outline sections taken from articles and textbooks.
- Answer open-ended questions related to the readings.
- Read short passages and answer questions.
- Identify/Recognize parts of speech; prepositional phrases; independent, dependent, and relative clauses; subject/verb agreement; pronoun types, agreement, reference, modifiers and point of view.
- Demonstrate proficiency in sentence mechanics, paper format, capitalization, apostrophes, spelling, sentence end punctuation, commas, and quotations.
- Compose writing assignments – may be ungraded or graded as homework (giving students the opportunity to become comfortable with the request).

Grading

The grading scale for each course and section will be determined by the instructor and distributed the first day of class.
