CO 210: Film History and Appreciation

Syllabus

Lecture Hours/Credits: 3/3

Catalog Description

Prerequisite: EN 060

Film History and Appreciation will introduce students to the film industry and history of cinema through the study of classic and contemporary films. Students will learn about the basic elements that distinguish films such as narrative, cinematography, sound, editing and set design, and how these components work together to develop stories and characters. Emphasis will be placed on exposing the class to a wide variety of styles and genres by viewing, analyzing, discussing and writing about films as a means of developing a greater visual literacy.

Textbook and Course Materials

It is the responsibility of the student to confirm with the bookstore and/or their instructor the textbook, handbook, and any other materials required for their specific course and section.

Class Policies

Attendance Policy:

Class attendance and participation in class discussions are essential to this course. Students are responsible for all materials during class absence and should make arrangements with other students to acquire class notes. If you are aware in advance of a class you must miss please notify the instructor and make arrangements to make up the work you will miss.

Plagiarism: Please refer to the online syllabus for definitions of plagiarism. The first instance of plagiarism will result in a zero (0) for that assignment and require a student instructor conference. A second offense will result in an F for the course. In addition, a second offense will be reported to the Dean of Liberal Arts and the Director of Student Affairs.

Deadlines: Project deadlines must be met. If your project is not finished at the scheduled time, it will affect your grade, unless you have made special arrangements with your instructor.
