CG 105: Desktop Publishing

Syllabus

Lecture Hours/Credits: 3/3

Catalog Description

This course provides students with an introduction to desktop publishing techniques. We will use page layout programs such as QuarkXPress and PageMaker to create a variety of documents: letter heads, business cards, newsletters, advertisements, book pages, menus and a newspaper front page. Students will become familiar with the commands and tools necessary for completing the publication of documents, including basic layout, text attributes and text editing, graphics, drawing tools, importing text and graphic files. The primary focus of the course is centered on working with text.

Textbook and Course Materials

It is the responsibility of the student to confirm with the bookstore and/or their instructor the textbook, handbook, and any other materials required for their specific course and section.
