EN 210 American Literature II

Syllabus

Lecture Hours/Credits: 3/3

Catalog Description

Prerequisites: EN 102

EN 210 is a survey course of American literature from mid-nineteenth century – Age of Realism – through mid-twentieth century literature. Since the purpose of a survey course is to study those authors contributing the most significantly in the widest possible range, the focus in this course is on the major authors of each period, yet writers of lesser stature are not excluded.

Textbook and Course Materials

It is the responsibility of the student to confirm with the bookstore and/or their instructor the textbook, handbook, and any other materials required for their specific course and section. Click here to see current textbook prices at ccnj.bncollege.com.
