ACT Program Mission

The Adult Center for Transition (ACT) is a post-secondary experience that prepares young adults with disabilities to become independent, contributing members of society. By focusing on student goals and strengths, ACT provides targeted academic, social and vocational education to prepare each graduate for tomorrow's competitive workforce.

Application Selection Criteria

Admission will be based on the following criteria:

- The applicant must be between the ages 18–24 at the start of the program.
- The applicant must demonstrate the desire to attend college and the ACT program independent of family or parent encouragement, and adhere to the policies regarding attendance and participation in all aspects of the program.
- The applicant must have paid, integrated, competitive employment as a primary desired outcome upon graduation.
- The applicant must demonstrate sufficient social/emotional skills to navigate the demands of a college environment.
- The applicant must demonstrate the ability to follow reasonable rules and expectations and treat others (staff, students, and faculty) with dignity and respect. Note: The program does not have the personnel to supervise students with difficult and challenging behaviors or to dispense medications.
- The applicant must have the potential to successfully achieve his/her goals within the context of the ACT program's content and setting.
- The applicant must have graduated with a high school diploma or special certificate.

Please do not call about the status of your application, as we will not be able to provide this information for you over the phone. You will receive a letter letting you know our final decision.
