

Rowan College of South Jersey

Administrative Procedure: 8005.4

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION APPEALS

To ensure that eligible individuals with disabilities have equal access to the College, the Department of Special Services provides reasonable accommodations to eligible individuals who submit required documentation to be considered for accommodations.

Accommodations are provided to address the special needs of individuals with disabilities under Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities and Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008.

In the event that an individual deems a reasonable accommodation was not sufficiently made or, in fact, denied his/her request for an accommodation, the individual can make a written request to have the decision reconsidered. The written appeal may be made to the Director of Student Special Services/ADA/504 Officer.

If the appeal is denied, the student can submit a written appeal to the Special Assistant to the President, Diversity and Equity/Title IX Compliance (Gloucester campus), or Director of Diversity, Equity, Title IX, and Judicial Affairs (Cumberland campus).

The decision rendered by either the Special Assistant to the President, Diversity and Equity/Title IX Compliance (Gloucester campus), or Director of Diversity, Equity, Title IX, and Judicial Affairs (Cumberland campus) is final.
