

Rowan College of South Jersey

Policy: 2003
Title: EXECUTIVE REPRESENTATION
Area: General Administration
Approved: 07/01/19

In the absence of the President, it will be the responsibility of the Chief Operating Officer, Vice President and Provost, vice presidents, and/or the appropriate executive directors to manage the day-to-day operations of all services within the College until the President returns or is replaced. If the absence is lengthy, the Board will appoint an acting president to immediately assume the responsibilities until the President's return or replacement.

References to "President" in policy or administrative procedure will mean the "President or his/her designee," unless indicated otherwise.

The President will establish administrative procedure detailing the assignment and succession of authority in his/her absence.

References:

Rowan College of South Jersey Administrative Procedure, 2003 Executive Representation

Policy: 2003 Executive Representation