

Rowan College of South Jersey

Policy: 3301
Title: ACADEMIC PROGRESS, PROBATION, AND LEAVE
Area: Academic Services
Approved: 07/01/19, 08/09/23
Revised: 07/30/24

A student at the College is deemed to be in Good Standing when making satisfactory progress toward the completion of program requirements when the student has earned a cumulative grade point average of 2.000 or higher, completed 12 college level credits, and has a ratio of credits attempted versus credits completed exceeding 67% in college level coursework. Such determination will be made at the conclusion of every semester.

Federal regulations associated with minimal levels of progress application to financial aid students will be administered through the College's Financial Aid Office.

A student will be placed on academic probation when the student's cumulative GPA falls below 2.000 after a minimum of 12 college-level credits have been attempted and a ratio of credits attempted versus credits completed exceeding 67%. Credit restrictions apply when students are on academic probation. A student will be removed from academic probation when the student's cumulative GPA has risen to 2.000 or above and a ratio of credits attempted versus credits completed exceeding 67%. Students on academic probation do not qualify for the President's or Dean's list.

While on probation, the student will be required to participate in advising sessions with a counseling advisor and complete an Academic Success plan. Those who continue to demonstrate unsatisfactory progress will be placed on academic leave from the College through the next full academic semester and may subsequently initiate readmission to the College by making an appointment with a counseling advisor and complete a new Academic Success Program.

The President will direct the development of administrative procedures to further define the process associated with this policy.
