Dear RCSJ Class of 2025,

You did it—congratulations, graduate!

On behalf of the Rowan College of South Jersey Alumni Association, we are thrilled to welcome you into a proud community of alumni stretching back nearly 60 years. Whether you studied at Gloucester or Cumberland, whether your journey took two years or more, today is the result of your hard work, grit, and belief in what is possible. That deserves to be celebrated—big time.

This moment didn’t happen by accident. It happened because you showed up, stuck with it, and gave your all. And as you turn the page to whatever comes next—career, more school, or something brand new—know this: you’re not doing it alone. You now belong to a network of RCSJ graduates who are out there making a difference, uplifting others, and continuing to grow. And now, you are one of them.

This year, we’re leaning into the wise words of American essayist Ralph Waldo Emerson: “Make the most of yourself, for that is all there is of you.” It’s a powerful reminder that your greatest gift to the world is showing up as your fullest, most authentic self. So, whether you’re stepping into the workforce, continuing your education, or still figuring out your path, remember that becoming your best self is a lifelong journey—and it’s worth everything you’ve got.

The RCSJ Alumni Association is here to be part of that journey. We are more than a mailing list—we’re a resource, a support system, and a way to stay connected to a community that wants to see you succeed. Want to give back? Mentor a student, volunteer, or attend an event and say hello. We would love that. The door is always open.

So, as you head into this next chapter, keep growing. Keep showing up. And keep making the most of yourself—because there’s only one you, and the world needs what you bring to it.

We can’t wait to hear what you do next.

With pride and warmest wishes,

The Rowan College of South Jersey
Alumni Association
