STUDENT ID:

The U.S. Department of Education has indicated that you have had an unusual enrollment history while receiving Federal financial aid funds. Students who have attended multiple schools and earned Federal financial aid in a short period of time may be considered to have an unusual enrollment history. You must submit your completed Unusual Enrollment History Appeal with all REQUIRED documentation listed below. Appeals submitted with missing documentation or without ALL prior college transcripts will be considered INCOMPLETE and will not be processed.

STEP 1: Print your Federal Financial Aid History

You MUST log into the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) at www.nsls.ed.gov to obtain your Federal financial aid history. You will need your Federal Student Aid FSA ID to log in. You must review the history to complete Step 2. Retain history for your records.

STEP 2: Prior College Transcripts Required to be Evaluated

You must submit official academic transcripts for all colleges/universities attended during the academic years 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2022-2023 and 2023-2024.

STEP 3: Letter Explaining Circumstance for Appeal

If you did not earn academic credit while receiving Federal aid at an Institution you previously attended, the U.S. Department of Education REQUIRES you to explain the circumstances which resulted in your failure to complete academic credits. Please submit a typed statement which provides an explanation of your failure to earn academic credit. Attach all relevant supporting document for each reason listed in your statement.

STEP 4: Supporting Documentation:

You must provide documentation to support the circumstance(s) in your appeal. Circumstances are limited to the reasons below. Appeals submitted without documentation will be considered incomplete and will be denied.

- Personal injury or illness (must have occurred during semester(s) of academic difficulty) – Requires doctor’s statement, hospital records, or accident/police report
- Death or serious illness of an immediate family member (parents, grandparents, children, spouse, sibling) – Requires doctor’s statement, hospital records or a death certificate/obituary notice
- Employment changes – Requires documents to show loss of job or other changes in employment
- Divorce or separation in the student’s immediate family – Requires divorce/separation documents or letter from attorney
- Failure to have a set academic goal/major or misunderstanding of schools Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards – (may only be used as an excuse for one (1) time during the years in question).
- Other – Requires supporting documentation

I hereby certify that all information provided on this form is true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge.
