

DIVISION OF Education & Humanities

Prepare to make an impact on future generations with analytical prowess, societal knowledge, and a well-rounded education supported by critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

RCSJ.edu/EducationHumanities

Marisol Perez Cruz, Early Childhood Education

Find Your Fit at RCSJ

4 academic delivery methods:

In-Person

Live Online

Hybrid

Traditional Online

Find Your Program

From History to Philosophy, Literature to Language, Early Childhood Education to a Professorial pathway — Rowan College of South Jersey offers the perfect blend of classroom instruction and hands-on experience that will prepare you to educate others. The Division of Education & Humanities is home to Teachers 2000 cohort program, which provides an immersive and supportive learning community.

Find Your Opportunity

RCSJ's Division of Education & Humanities provides access to one-of-a-kind degree and certificate programs, internship experiences, and personalized advisement to prepare students for meaningful careers in education and the humanities. Whether you attend classes on the Cumberland campus, the Gloucester campus, or online, you are guaranteed a quality education at one of the lowest tuition rates in New Jersey.

Internship & Career Planning

Find Your Direction

Start college on the right foot with free, one-on-one guidance to help determine career goals, individual strengths, and preparedness for the workplace, or explore potential careers that align with your interests, personality, values, and skills.

Find Your Advantage

Prepare for the job search with free career preparation workshops, resume and cover letter review, mock interviews, plenty of job search guidance, and access to job fairs, or set yourself apart from the competition with the Internship Career Connection which provides invaluable workforce experience, college credits, and a paycheck.

Meet the Deans

Lynn Lichtenberger, Ed.D.

Dean of Education
& Humanities
Cumberland Campus

Paul Rufino, Ed.D.

Dean of Education
& Humanities
Gloucester Campus

Learn More

[RCSJ.edu/
EducationHumanities](https://www.rcsj.edu/educationhumanities)

Cumberland Campus

Maryann Dombroski
856-200-4575
mdombros@rcsj.edu

Gloucester Campus

Angie Pachini
856-415-2137
apachini@rcsj.edu

Education & Humanities at Cumberland

Associate Degrees

- Early Childhood/Preschool Education
- Liberal Arts
 - Art Education Option
 - Elementary/Secondary Education Option
 - History Option
 - Literature Option
 - Spanish Option

Certificates

- Early Childhood Education

Certificates of Achievement

- Infant/Toddler Education

Education & Humanities at Gloucester

Associate Degrees

- Arts and Sciences
 - History Option
 - Philosophy Option
- Education (K-6)⁽³⁺¹⁾
- Health, Physical Education and Recreation

Certificates of Achievement

- Neurodiversity & Inclusion
- Educational Sign Language Interpreter

RCSJ Education majors who meet academic criteria are guaranteed acceptance into the Rowan University College of Education's Early Childhood Education or Elementary Education programs.

Find Your Next Step

RCSJ's advisors help students align their courses for hassle-free transfer to the college or university of their choice, with on-site university partnership offices and unique pathway options providing opportunities for students to immediately begin their studies towards an advanced degree.

The College's longstanding relationship with flagship partner, Rowan University, offers cost-saving bachelor's degree opportunities. Visit the Rowan University Center on campus, or at RCSJ.edu/RU, to learn about offerings including a "3+1" option in Inclusive Education.